

Wednesday Evenings @ the Abington Community Library.
1200 W. Grove St. Clarks Summit, PA.
September 23, 2009 - May 26, 2010
6:30 - 8:30 PM

Families Helping Families is an organization providing support for families with a member in the early stages of recovery for drug or alcohol addiction.

We offer:

- Education about the key concepts of addiction and recovery;
- Connections with other families and individuals who have struggled with addiction;
- Guest speakers and partners including community leaders like Dr. Mike Mahon, Superintendent of Abington Schools and Lou Vitale, Clarks Summit Chief of Police, and Lackawanna County Court Judge Michael Barrasse;
- A proactive and cooperative effort with community leaders to keep our families safe and healthy.

In case of inclement weather call (570) 587-3440 for closing information.
